Steve O’Kane:

I am a singer/songwriter and poet, working to express something of the thoughts, feelings, and emotional ups and downs that we all experience on this unique journey known as “life”. I hope that some of my work might speak to/for you also. Steve plays guitar, bass, harmonica and percussion.

Northern Passage:

Gerd Wagner and Barbara Wibbleman play ‘new music with a melancholic vibe’ with Gerd’s excellent classical guitar style and Barbara’s internationalist vocals. New songs and creative covers, both traditional and contemporary.
